

Memo: Development Coach workshop and course updates

To: Provincial / Territorial Associations

From: Volleyball Canada

---

Please note the following updates regarding the NCCP Development Coach workshop:

The Level 1 workshop has expired and may no longer be delivered as of May 23, 2018. All corresponding materials such the Learning Facilitator Guide, Coach Workbook and Evaluation Package dated August 2011 (or earlier) may no longer be used. The revised version of all Development Coach course materials will be dated May 24, 2018 or later.

For the purpose of clarity, VC will refer to the Level 1 workshop as the expired version (2011), and the Development Coach workshop as the revised version (2018).

Coaches who completed the Level 1 workshop before May 1, 2018 now have a sunset period to complete the Level 1 Evaluation, using the 2011 Evaluation package. The sunset date to complete this evaluation is April 30, 2019. After this date, coaches will be required to use the Development Coach Evaluation Package (2018), which contains criteria that was not addressed or trained as part of the Level 1 workshop. Volleyball Canada will post this information on the VC coaching Centre and the volleyball.ca websites. In addition, VC will send an email to all coaches registered in the VC Coaching Centre regarding this update. Please also communicate this information to your members.

Revisions to the Development and Advanced Development Coach pathways will be made. The timeline for official launch of these changes will take place on September 1, 2018. The exception to this is the LTAD eLearning module and Volleyball Foundations e-learning module, which will be phased in when they are complete. See table below.

Kind Regards,

James Sneddon
Director, Athlete and Coach Development
Volleyball Canada
